Language Paper 1: Section A (Reading) Extract-based Questions

ANALYSIS

Developed explanation and analysis of language and structure devices
2-3 paragraphs, beginning middle and end
Include a reader's repsonse

SENTENCE STARTERS
The writer is... (link to question)
The writer says "..."
The use of (device) implies..
The reader feels...

EVALUATE

Explore the setting, event and character give a judgement on what the writer has done well include a reader response

SENTENCE STARTERS
The writer successfully...
The writer effectively conveys...
This cleverly demonstrates...
The writer powerfully positions the reader to feel...

7A: Comparison of similarities between Text 1 and Text 2

Short description of what is similar, including a quotation from each text to prove your point

SENTENCE STARTERS
Both texts are similar because...
Text 1 says...
Whilst, Text 2 describes...

7B: Comparison of similarities and differences between Text 1 and Text 2

A comparison between both similarities and differences
Analyse structure or language
Compare point of view, perspective and tone

SENTENCE STARTERS
Both writers describe...
In contrast...
However...
Therefore both texts are similar because
Therefore both texts are difference because

Language Paper 2: Section B (Writing) Transactional Writing

PARAGRAPH 1

Use an anecdote (short story) to demonstrate your opinion
Variety of sentence lengths
Variety of punctuation

SENTENCE STARTERS
Picture this:
One afternoon...
This moment taught me...

Paragraph 2

Explain in detail using statistics, facts, questioning exactly what your anecdote means and what your opinion is and why

SENTENCE STARTERS
This moment taught me...
The problem is...
Studies show that...

Paragraph 3

Conclude your main points by giving a solution as to how people can achieve your advice, or move away from something you think is wrong

SENTENCE STARTERS
We must... (try to use anaphora)

LANGUAGE PAPER 2

READING: EXTRACT 1	READING: EXTRACT 2
Comprehension (4)	Comprehension (2)
Analyse (15),	Evaluate (15)
READING: EXTRACT 1 AND 2
Comparing similarities (6)
Comparing similarities and differences, language and structure (14)
WRITING SECTION
Transactional Writing (40)

Key Vocabulary for Writing Section

Adjectives	Definition
Relentless	Increasingly intense.
Complacent	A feeling of quiet pleasure but unaware of possible issues.
Anguished	Experiencing severe mental or physical pain or suffering.
Exhilarating	Making one feel very happy.
Harmonious	Pleasing and free from disagreement.
Spellbinding	Gaining someone's attention, fascinating.

Verbs	Definition
Ignite	To inspire intense feelings.
Disrupt	Interrupt something by causing a problem.
Probe	Trying to find out information that you should not know.

Adverbs	Definition
Dramatically	Very sudden and surprising or noticeable.
Sceptically	Not easily convinced and having doubts.
Passionately	In a way that shows strong feelings or beliefs.
Irrefutably	Impossible to prove wrong.

Structure / Form	Definition
Polysyndeton	The repetition of conjunctions or connectives for impact.
Anaphora	The structure of repeating a word or phrase at the beginning of each different
Parallelism	The use of a repeated grammatical structure.
Antithesis	The use of words with opposite meaning within a sentence or phrase.
Hypophora	The use of a question and answer structure.

Language	Definition
Power of three	The use of three words, phrases or ideas to make the language more memorable.
Emotive language	Language intended to create an emotional response.
Rhetorical questions	Asking a question without wanting or giving an answer.
Repetition	Repeating a word, phrase or idea throughout the text.
Shocking imagery	An image designed to shock the reader/audience.
Use of imperatives	Verbs that give an order or command.
Anecdotes	A short account or story of a real incident.
Statistics and facts	Something proven to be true, often using numbers.
Inclusive language	Using language, often pronouns, to involve the reader/audience.
Over exaggeration	Over-stating something very strongly for dramatic effect.
Nice to reader	This makes the reader want to agree with the speaker.

Key Vocabulary for Reading Section

Analysis	Evaluate	Viewpoint	Explores	Connectives
Shows	Powerfully	Celebrates	Creates	Therefore
Suggests	Effectively	Promotes	Evokes	Hence
Implies	Creatively	Embraces	Establishes	Even though
Portrays	Cleverly	Questions	Reinforces	On the other hand
Conveys	Purposefully	Challenges	Develops	Furthermore