ENGLISH GUIDE

FRANKENSTEIN

Literature paper 2

Question 7a:

TIME: 30min

20 marks

Extract question on Frankenstein

The question focuses on specific characters

You must:

Aim for 2-3 paragraphs on the beginning, middle, end

2 quotations per paragraph

Analyse language and structure

Reader response

Question 7b:

TIME: 30mins

20 marks

DO NOT TALK ABOUT THE EXTRACT

A whole text question on a theme in Frankenstein

You must:

Aim 2-3 paragraphs, on different characters or events in the play

Refer to events in the play, linking to question theme

Reader response

POETRY

Question 9:

TIME: 45mins

A comparison between a poem from the conflict anthology and a poem of your choice

20 marks

You must:

Pick a poem you can compare to the selected poem

Consider the similarities and differences,

Compare language and structure

Write 2-3 paragraphs

Question 11:

TIME: 30mins

A comparison between 2 unseen poems

20 marks

You must:

Compare the similarities and differences,

Compare language and structure

Write 2-3 paragraphs

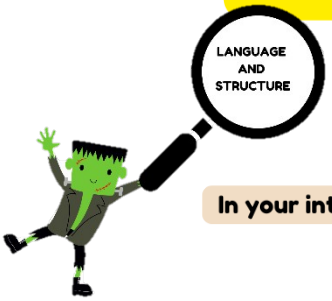

FRANKENSTEIN

WOOHOO REVISION

Literature Paper 2: Section A ('Frankenstein')
Part A – Extract-based Question

Structure: Introduction

In your introduction, you should give a brief summary of the extract, identify where in the novel the extract is from (beginning/middle/end) and comment on form.

SENTENCE STARTERS

The extract is from... (what is happening? What has happened before?)
· In this extract, Shelley describes... (very brief overview)
· It is written in the form of a...

Model:

The extract is from Chapter 2, at the beginning of Victor's narrative. In this extract, Shelley describes Victor's friendship and interests in childhood. It is written in the form of an embedded narrative and uses a first-person narrative from Victor's perspective. Shelley uses this form as it allows an insight into Victor's thoughts and feelings.

Structure: Main Paragraphs

In the main body of your response, you should track how the character is presented in the beginning/middle/end of the extract.
You need to identify both language and structure devices and zoom in on language, discussing the connotations of specific words and what their impact is on the presentation of the character.

SENTENCE STARTERS

At the beginning/middle/end of the extract, Shelley presents the character of _____ as...
· This is shown/evident/illustrated/demonstrated when ... (quote)
· Shelley uses _____ (name of device) to...
· The adjective/verb/noun/etc '_____' has connotations of... which suggests...
· Shelley uses this language/structure to...

Model:

In the beginning of the extract, Shelley presents Victor as having an idyllic childhood and being focused on his education. When describing his relationship with Elizabeth, Victor states "harming was the soul of our companionships". Shelley uses a metaphor to create a comparison between harmony and their friendship, emphasising the closeness of their relationship. The abstract noun 'harmony' connotes perfection, peace and heavenly joy. This implies that there are no disputes or disagreements in Victor's family. Shelley also describes Victor's 'thirst for knowledge', using a metaphor to align learning with need. This indicates that Victor needs education in order to survive. Shelley uses this language to emphasise the perfect nature of Victor's upbringing whilst introducing his obsession with learning.

LITERATURE PAPER 2: FRANKENSTEIN

Themes
Knowledge/ Education/Learning	The pursuit of learning results both personal growth and dangerous obsession, which have devastating consequences
Loneliness/ isolation	A destructive force, with both Victor and the Creature suffering profound loneliness that fuels obsession, misery, and a cycle of revenge.
Family/ Relationships	A source of comfort, belonging, and moral guidance, yet the failure seen in the Creature's abandonment, leads to isolation and tragedy.
Ambition / Obsession	Dangerous desire to learn knowledge that leads to suffering.
Prejudice	The rejection of the Creature, highlights how fear of the unfamiliar can lead to cruelty and isolation.

Key Vocabulary

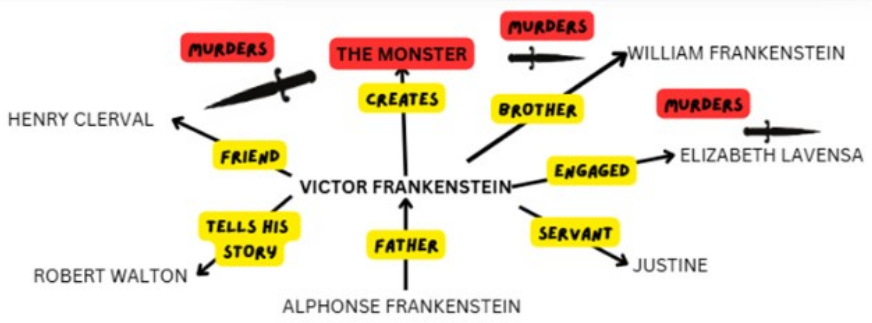

Key word	Definition
Vindictive	Seeking revenge.
Hubris	Excessive pride or ambition.
Obsession	Thinking about or doing something all the time.
Transgression	Violation of boundaries or limits.
Morality	Principles of right and wrong.
Redemption	Seeking forgiveness or atonement.
Tormented	Deeply troubled or distressed.

Key words for Essay Writing

Analysis	Viewpoint	Explores
Shows	Celebrates	Creates
Suggests	Promotes	Evokes
Implies	Embraces	Establishes
Portrays	Questions	Reinforces

Act / Scene	Key moment
Letters 1 to 4	Robert Walton writes to his sister, describing his expedition. He finds Victor Frankenstein who is ill, after unknowingly seeing the monster. Walton looks after Victor and they become friends, Victor shares his story and Walton writes it down.
Chapters 1 – 10	Victor has a very happy childhood. His mother dies just before he leaves to go to University. Victor becomes ill learning about science and discovers a way to give life to dead objects, and so creates a monster out of dead body parts. The Monster tries to make friends with an unprejudiced child, William but he is also horrible to the monster. Whilst Victor is on holiday with Clerval, he learns that Justine has been accused of killing William, but he knows it was the monster. The Monster and Victor meet for the first time since creation, and Victor tries to kill him out of revenge. The monster asks Victor to talk and explain his actions.
Chapters 11—16	The Monster describes his first moments of experiencing the world and nature. He observes the the De Laceys family from afar, to learn about love and communication. De Lacey, a blind old man, shows kindness to the Monster. However, Felix attacks the monster thinking his father is in danger. The Monster weeps and grieves over this family, and then he wants revenge. When the boy says his father was called Alphonse Frankenstein, he strangles him. The monster asks Frankenstein to build him a wife.
Chapters 17 - 24	Victor agrees to the Monster's request to build a second creature, as long as the monster leaves Europe. Despite feeling scared, he starts creating a new monster in Scotland. The Monster confronts Victor and, Victor tears the creature up. The Monster howls in rage. Victor is accused of murdering Clerval, but evidence shows he is not guilty. Victor and Elizabeth marry. While Victor is not there, the Monster finds Elizabeth. He finds his wife dead and he sees the Monster grinning at him. The magistrates do not believe Victor's story about the monster. Victor promises to take action himself and chases the Monster for months. Victor is rescued by Walton.
The Final Letters	Dying, Victor asks Walton to kill the Monster. The monster finds Victor's dead body and tells Walton he regrets what he has done, but Victor mistreated him. The monster leaps off the ship to his death.

CHARACTER MAP

POETRY

POETRY REVISION IS A GIFT THAT IS SURE TO GRADE LIFT
'TROUBLED PLEASURE'
'BUT NOTHING HAPPENS.'
'HATH MELTED LIKE SNOW IN THE GLANCE OF THE LORD!'
'WHO CAN SAY? IT IS SILENT NOW.'

CONFLICT POETRY

Literature Paper 2: Part B (Poetry)
Part A - Conflict poetry.

Structure: Introduction

You need to summarise both poems, discuss the context of the poems and highlight any similarities/differences

SENTENCE STARTERS

You need to summarise both poems, discuss the context of the poems and highlight any similarities/differences.
· '_____' (name of poem 1) was written by... The poem is about...
· Similarly, /differently, '_____' was written by... The poem is about...
· Both poems explore the theme of...

Model:

'The Destruction of Sennacherib' was written by Lord Byron in 1815. It is a retelling of a Bible story with the aim of motivating British soldiers who were at war with Napoleonic France. Differently, 'The Charge of the Light Brigade' was written by Lord Tennyson in 1854 during the Crimean war. A miscommunication sent nearly 500 men to their deaths and Tennyson wrote the poem to honour them. Both poems present armies and write about what happened to them.

Structure: Main Paragraphs

STRUCTURE/FORM

You need to discuss the form and structure of both poems. Note the type of poem e.g. dramatic monologue/ sonnet / etc and explain the importance of it. How many stanzas does the poem have – why might this be important? Is the poem regular/ irregular – why do you think the poet made this choice?
- Summarise how they are similar/different at the end of your paragraph.

SENTENCE STARTERS

· Both poems use structure to present...
· '_____' (name of poem 1) is made up of... The use of regular/irregular structure...
· Similarly, / differently, '_____' (name of poem 2) is made up of... The poet uses...
· Both poems...

Model:

Both poems use structure to present armies at war. 'Destruction' is made up of six quatrains and has a regular structure to reflect the serious content of the poem. Byron also uses rhyming couplets to make his poem memorable. Additionally, Byron uses metre to reflect the sound of galloping horses during the battle. Similarly, 'Charge' also uses metre to reflect the sounds of the British army. However, the poem is made up of six stanzas using an irregular structure to reflect the chaos of war. Whilst both poems use a different structure, they both are used to reflect the movement of armies.

LANGUAGE/STRUCTURE DEVICES

- You need to identify both language and structure devices and zoom in on language, discussing the connotations of specific words and what their impact is on the presentation of the topic.

SENTENCE STARTERS

· Both poems discuss...
• '_____' (name of poem 1), the poet describes... The writer uses _____ to ...
The adjective/noun/verb/etc '_____' connotes... which suggests/implies/demonstrates...
• Similarly, / differently, '_____' (name of poem 2), the poet describes... The writer uses _____ to... The adjective/noun/verb/etc '_____' connotes... which suggests...
· Both poems...
· Both poems...

Model:

Both poems discuss the deaths of soldiers in battle. In 'Destruction', Byron describes the deaths of the Assyrian army: 'hath melted like snow in the glance of the Lord!' Byron uses an exclamatory sentence to emphasise the speaker's shock and awe at the power of God. The use of the simile creates a comparison between the Assyrian army and melted snow to show how weak and fragile they are compared to God. Further, the verb 'melted' has connotations of frailty and disintegration to emphasise the speed of their defeat. Similarly, Owen describes the speedy deaths of the British army: 'stormed at with shot and shell'. Owen's use of sibilance emphasises the rapidity of the destruction of the brigade whilst mirroring the sounds of battle experienced by the soldiers. The verb 'stormed' connotes rushing, a feeling of being overwhelmed and power which further highlights the vulnerability of the British army compared to the strength of the Russian army. Therefore, both poets emphasise the swiftness of deaths within battle.

which indicates that the writer maintains a positive mindset despite the decline they are experiencing.

How is meaning reinforced through the language and structure in the poems?

LANGUAGE DEVICE	DEFINITION
Simile	The writer compares this image of _____ to _____ to illustrate...
Metaphor	The writer uses the image of _____ to convey...
Imagery	The imagery shows...
Alliteration	The "___" sound is harsh/soft to imply...
Personification	The object _____ is compared to a human to portray...
Adjective	The adjective "_____" connotes _____, implying...
Adverb	The adverb "_____" is used to emphasise...

Structure / Form	Definition
Stanza	A set of lines grouped together; a verse in a poem.
Line	A group of words arranged into one row in a poem.
Repetition	Using the same word or phrase twice or more in a text.
Rhyme	Words that have or end with a sound that matches another.
Enjambe-ment	The beat of a poem, or song, made up of stressed and unstressed sounds.
Anaphora	The structure of repeating a word or phrase at the beginning of each different sentence.
Alliteration	The repetition of the same letters at the beginning of words.

Themes	Meaning	Suggested Pairings
The power of nature	Nature is an uncontrollable force.	'Exposure' and 'Extract from The Prelude'.
War and conflict	The physical, emotional, and psychological impacts of war, leading to suffering, and having a lasting effect.	'The Destruction of Sennacherib' and 'The Charge of the Light Brigade'.
Personal Conflict	Personal struggles related to identity, relationships, and how society expects you to be.	'Cousin Kate' and 'Half-caste' .
Memory and loss	The lasting impact of past experiences, grief, and the emo-tional pain of losing loved ones. Memories can be positive and negative.	'Catrin' and 'What Were They Like?'.
Strong Emotions	A strong feeling, for example: sadness, anger or fear that takes control of people.	'Cousin Kate' and 'A Poison Tree'.
Identity	How personal experiences, effect your experiences in the world. The struggles of belonging and the influence of society on individual identity.	'The Class Game' and 'No Problem'.

Key Vocabulary for Reading Section

Analysis	Evaluate	Viewpoint	Explores	Comparative
Shows	Powerfully	Celebrates	Creates	Likewise
Suggests	Effectively	Promotes	Evokes	Similarly
Implies	Creatively	Embraces	Establishes	Despite
Portrays	Cleverly	Questions	Reinforces	Contrastingly
Conveys	Purposefully	Challenges	Develops	Furthermore

~~

POETRY

PO

	A Poison Tree William Blake	The Destruction of Sennacherib Lord Byron	Extract from The Prelude William Wordsworth	The Man He Killed Tom Hardy	Cousin Kate Christina Rossetti	Half-caste John Agard	Exposure Wilfred Owen
Context	A Romantic poet focused on emotion.	A biblical retelling of a war.	Romantic poet that believed in the power of nature.	The Boer War between the British and Dutch in South Africa, for the British Empire under Queen Victoria.	Victorian women had very little power and were ruled by men, religious time when sex out of marriage was a sin.	John Agard had a Carib-bean father and a Portuguese mother and so was mixed-race.	Written during World War I, Owen was a soldier himself describes the conditions.
Message	Anger has dangerous consequences.	Explores the consequences of pride.	Wordsworth writes as a boy that experiences the power of nature.	Hardy was anti-war and and shows that was futile.	Against the patriarchal society, and in favour of women's rights.	Challenges racial stereotypes in 1970s England.	Owen depicts the two enemies: the opposition and the bitter cold.
3 Key Quotations	'I was angry with my foe: I told it not, my wrath did grow.' 'And I water'd it in fears...and I sunned it with smiles' 'In the morning glad I see My foe outstretched beneath the tree.'	'The Assyrian came down like the wolf on the fold, And his cohorts were gleaming in purple and gold;' 'For the Angel of Death spread his wings on the blast And breathed in the face of the foe as he pass'd;'	'troubled pleasure' 'small circles glittering idly in the moon' 'a huge peak, black and huge'	'And staring face to face I shot at him as he at me And killed him in his place' 'I shot him dead because – Because he was my foe, Just so: my foe, of course he was'	'To lead a shameless, shameful life, His plaything and his love. He wore me like a gold-en knot, He changed me like a glove, So now I moan an un-clean thing, Who might have been a dove.'	- 'Explain yuself Wha yu mean When you say half caste' 'Ah listening to yu wid de keen half of mih ear Ah lookin at yu wid de keen half of mih eye'	'Our brains ache in the merciless iced east winds that knive us...' 'Sudden successive flights of bullets streak the silence, Less deadly than the air that shudders black with snow With sidelong flowing flakes'
		'Hath melted like snow in the glance of the Lord!'	'towered up between me and the stars'	'Yes, quaint and curious war is! You shoot a fellow down You'd treat if met where any bar is!'	'The neighbours call you goo and pure, Call me an outcast thing. Even so I sit and howl in dust'	'but yu must come back tomorrow wid de whole of yu eye an de whole of yu ear an de whole of yu mind'	'Tonight His frost will fasten on this mud and us, Shrivelling many hands, puckering foreheads crisp.'
					'Yet I've a gift you have not got...my fair-haired son, my shame, my pride'		'But nothing happens.'
Suggested pairing	LINK TO: The Prelude	LINK TO: Charge of the Light Brigade	LINK TO: A Poison Tree	LINK TO: Exposure	LINK TO: Catrin	LINK TO: No Problem	LINK TO: The Man he Killed

POETRY CONTEXT AND QUOTATIONS

	The Charge of the Light Brigade Lord Alfred Tenny-son	Catrin Gillian Clarke	War Photographer Carole Satyamurti	Belfast Confetti Ciaran Carson	The Class Game Mary Casey	Poppies John Weir	No Problem Benjamin Zephaniah	What Were They Like? Denise Levertov
Context	Crimean War, Battle of Balaclava, an order was misunderstood.	Teenagers were ex-pecting to have more freedom. Catrin is the name of the poet's daughter.	A comment on modern conflict and how the media presents events to the public.	Lived in Northern Ireland during 'The Troubles' - The IRA committed terrorist attacks on innocent people.	Liverpool in the 1980s had high pov-erty, unemployment, and tension between classes. Casey was working class.	Written to remember people who have suffered in all war.	Describes the experi-ences of growing up as a Black Caribbean person in Britain, dealing with racism.	Vietnam War, where Vietnamese people suffered and so was highly criticised.
Message	The poem celebrates the heroism and bravery of soldiers.	The contrasting love and conflict between a mum and her child.	The poem questions the morality of war in the media.	Riots can cause confusion and loss of identity.	Challenges class ste-reotypes, and to be proud of identity.	Criticising the fact that wars are still happening .	People should not be judged by the colour of their skin.	Levertov was an activ-ist trying to stop the war.
3 Key Quotations	'Theirs not to make reply, Theirs not to reason why, Theirs but to do and die:' 'Storm'd at with shot and shell, Boldly they rode and well, Into the jaws of Death, Into the mouth of Hell' 'When can their glory fade? O the wild charge they made!'	'I can remember you, our first Fierce confrontation, the tight Red rope of love which we both Fought over.' 'Still, I am fighting You off, as you stand there With your straight, strong, long Brown hair and your rosy, Defiant glare' 'the heart's pool'	'-as last week when I followed a small girl staggering down some devastated street' 'At the corner, the first bomb of the morning, shattered the stones.' 'Instinct prevailing, she dropped her bur-den and, mouth too small for her dark scream, began to run...'	'Suddenly as the riot squad moved in, it was raining exclamation marks. Nuts, bolts, nails, car-keys.' 'I was trying to com-plete a sentence in my head but it kept stuttering, All the alleyways and side-streets blocked with stops and colons.' 'I know this labyrinth so well...why can't I escape?'	'How can you tell what class I'm from?' 'Have I a label on me head, and another on me bum?' 'Well mate! A cleaner is me mother A docker is me broth-er Bread budding is wet nelly And me stomach is me belly And I'm proud of the class I'm from.'	'steeled the softening of my face' 'All my words flattened, rolled, turned into felt, slowly melting.' 'the world overflow-ing like a treasure chest. A split second and you were away. Intoxicated.' 'I traced the inscrip-tions on the war me-morial, leaned against it, like a wishbone.'	'I am not de problem But I bear de brunt Of silly playground taunts An racist stunts' 'Yu put me in a pigeon hole But I am versatile' 'I have no chips on my shoulders'	'Perhaps they gathered once to delight in blos-som, but after their children were killed there were no more buds.' 'When bombs smashed those mir-rors there was time only to scream.' 'Who can say? It is silent now.'
Suggested pairing	LINK TO: The De-struction of Sennacherib	LINK TO: Cousin Kate	LINK TO: Poppies	LINK TO:	LINK TO: Half-caste, No problem	LINK TO: War Photog-rapher	LINK TO: Half-caste	LINK TO: Exposure

Poetry

A Poison Tree – William Blake (1794)

'I was _____ with my _____:
I told it _____, my _____ did _____.'
'And I _____ it in _____...and I sunned it with _____'
'In the _____ glad I see
My foe _____ beneath the _____.'

The Destruction of Sennacherib – Lord Byron (1815)

'The _____ came down like the _____ on the
_____, And his cohorts were _____ in _____ and _____;'
'For the _____ of _____ spread his _____ on the blast/ And breathed in the _____ of the _____ as he pass'd;'
'Melted like _____ in the glance of the _____!'

The Charge of the Light Brigade – Alfred, Lord Tennyson (1854)

'Theirs not to make _____,
Theirs not to reason _____,
Theirs but to do and _____;'

'Storm'd at with shot and shell,
Boldly they _____ and well,
Into the jaws of _____,
Into the _____ of Hell'

When can their _____ fade?
O the wild charge they made!'

War Photographer – Carole Satyamurti (1987)

'–as last week when I followed a _____ girl staggering down some _____ street'
'At the corner, the first _____ of the morning,
_____, the _____.'
'Instinct prevailing, she dropped her _____'

Catrin – Gillian Clarke (1978)

'_____, white room'.
'I can _____you, our first
Fierce _____, the tight
Red rope of _____which we both
Fought over.'
'Still, I am _____
You off, as you stand there
With your ... _____ glare'

Cousin Kate – Christina Rossetti (1860)

'To lead a _____, _____ life,
His plaything and his love.
He wore me like a _____ _____,
He changed me like a glove,
'The neighbours call you _____ and _____,
Call me an _____ thing. '
'Yet I've a gift you have not got...my _____ son, my _____, my
_____'

Exposure – Wilfred Owen (1917)

In the _____ iced east winds that _____ us...'
'Sudden successive flights of bullets _____ the _____,
'All their eyes are _____.'
'But _____ happens.'

What Were They Like? – Denise Levertov (1967)

'but after their children were _____ there were no more _____.'
'When bombs smashed those mirrors there was time only to _____.'
'Who can say? It is _____ now.'

The Man He Killed – Thomas Hardy (1902)

'And staring face to face
I _____ at him as _____ at _____
And _____ him in his place'
'I shot him dead because –
Because he was my _____,
Just so: my _____, of course he was'
'Yes, _____ and _____ war is!'

The Class Game – Mary Casey (1981)

'How can you tell what _____ I'm _____?'
'Have I a label on me _____ and another on me _____?
'Well _____! A _____ is me mother
A _____ is me brother
Bread budding is wet _____
And me stomach is me _____
And I'm _____ of the class I'm from.'

Belfast Confetti – Ciaran Carson (1990)

It was _____ exclamation marks.
Nuts, bolts, nails, _____.'
'I was trying to complete a sentence in my head but it kept
_____,
All the alleyways and side-streets blocked with _____ and
_____.'
'I know this labyrinth so well...why can't I _____?'

Half Caste – John Agard (1996)

'Explain _____
Wha yu mean
When you say _____,'
'yu mean _____
sit down at da _____
and mix a _____ key wid a _____ key
is a _____-_____ symphony'
'but yu must come back tomorrow
wid de whole of yu _____
an de whole of yu _____
an de whole of yu _____'

No Problem – Benjamin Zephaniah (1996)

'I am not de _____
But I bear de brunt
Of silly _____ taunts
An racist stunts'
I am born _____
But dey got me on de _____,
'Yu put me in a _____ hole
But I am versatile'
'I have no _____ on my shoulders'

Extract from The Prelude – William Wordsworth (1850)

'troubled _____'
'small _____ glittering idly in the _____'
'a _____ peak, black and _____'
'towered up between _____ and the _____'

Poppies – Jane Weir (2005)

'steeled the _____ of my face'
'All my words _____, _____, turned into felt, slowly melting.'
'the world _____ like a _____ chest.'
'I traced the _____ on the war memorial, leaned against it, like a _____.'

FRANKENSTEIN

KEY THEMES

LONELINESS AND ISOLATION
ROBERT WALTON ON THE BOAT
FRANKENSTEIN AT THE UNIVERSITY OF INGOLSTADT
THE MONSTER WHEN HE IS CREATED
FRANKENSTEIN WEHN HE CAN'T TELL ANYONE ABOUT THE MONSTER
THE MONSTER AFTER SEEING THE DE LACEYS

JUDEGMENT
FRANKENSTEIN FLEES FROM THE MONSTER
THE DELACEYS REJECT THE MONSTER

SUFFERING
FRANKENSTEIN IS ILL FROM STUDYING THE MONSTER WHEN HE IS CREATED
FRANKENSTEIN WEHN HE CAN'T TELL ANYONE ABOUT THE MONSTER
THE MONSTER AFTER SEEING THE DE LACEYS

KNOWLEDGE/EDUCATION
ROBERT WALTON IS EXPLORING A NEW LAND
FRANKENSTEIN LEARNS TO CREATE LIFE
THE MONSTER LEARNS FROM THE DE LACEYS

KEY VOCABULARY

SOLITUDE:
IN A SPACE WHERE YOU ARE ALONE.

ARDENTLY: VERY PASSIONATELY

ACQUISTION: THE LEARNING OR DEVELOPING OF A SKILL, HABIT, OR QUALITY.

CONFLICT POETRY

A POISON TREE - WILLIAM BLAKE

BELFAST CONFETTI - CIARAN CARSON

CATRIN - GILLIAN CLARKE

COUSIN KATE - CHRISTINA ROSSETTI

EXPOSURE - WILFRED OWEN

HALF-CASTE - JOHN AGARD

NO PROBLEM - BENJAMIN ZEPHANIAH

POPPIES - JANE WEIR

THE CHARGE OF THE LIGHT BRIGADE - ALFRED LORD TENNYSON

THE CLASS GAME - MARY CASEY

THE DESTRUCTION OF SENNACHERIB - LORD BYRON

THE MAN HE KILLED - THOMAS HARDY

THE PRELUDE - WILLIAM WORDSWORTH

WHAT WERE THEY LIKE - DENISE LEVERTOV

UNSEEN POETRY

1. WHAT ARE EACH OF THE POEMS ABOUT?
2. WHAT IS THE FORM/STRUCTURE OF EACH POEM?
3. WHAT ARE THE SIMILARITIES? SELECT QUOTATION FROM EACH.
4. WHAT ARE THE DIFFERENCES? SELECT QUOTATION FROM EACH.
5. ANALYSE THE LANGUAGE AND STRUCTURE OF THE QUOTATIONS YOU HAVE SELECTED.

LANGUAGE DEVICES

PERSONAL PRONOUN: 'MY' - SHOWS OWNERSHIP

METAPHOR
COMPARING SOMETHING TO SOMETHING ELSE (WITHOUT LIKE/AS)

ADJECTIVE: A WORD THAT DESCRIBES A NOUN

PERSONIFICATION: GIVING SOMETHING THAT IS NOT HUMAN, HUMAN QUALITIES

STRUCTURE DEVICES

EXCLAMATORY SENTENCE: USES A '!', THEY ARE SHOWING STRONG EMOTION EG. FEAR, PASSION OR ANGER

LIST: A NUMBER OF CONNECTED ITEMS OR IDEAS ONE AFTER THE OTHER

RHETORICAL QUESTION: A QUESTION THAT DOES NOT NEED AN ANSWER